

(i) Programme No.: 2.07 Programme Title : Review and finalization of Vidyarthi Sanskrit Sahitya Sandarbha Kosh.

Vidyarthi Sanskrit Sahitya Sandarbha Kosh

Due to other priority works of the department, this reference dictionary book could not be completed. There are twelve chapters and around 1000 entries in this reference dictionary in which explanation of the entries are written. The matter of this book needs to be thoroughly reviewed in the light of NCF-2005. It is, therefore, proposed to review this MSS and prepare CRC of the same for publication. In the session 2011-12, the MSSs of Hitopadesh, Panchatantra and Bal Sanskrit Sabha Kosh were reviewed and finalized. Some entries of Vidyarthi Sanskrit Sahitya Sandarbha Kosh are required to be rewritten. Accordingly the MSS will be reviewed and finalized in the session 2012-13.

(ii) Specific Objectives :

To provide support and reading material for students and teachers for effective learning and teaching of Sanskrit. The MSS will be reviewed and finalized. CRC of the same will be sent for publication.

(iii) Methodology :

MSS will be reviewed and finalised in the workshops. CRC of the MSS will be prepared in the department for publication.

(iv) Faculty involved:

Prof. K.C. Tripathi, Professor of Sanskrit, DEL

Dr. Ranjit Behera, Assistant Professor, DEL

(v) Other details

(a) Development

(b) On-going

(c) Rs. 4,80,000/-

(h) RIEs (i) Experts and Sr. teachers from schools & Universities (j) Recommended.