Crying only a little bit is no use. You must cry until your pillow is soaked! Then you can jump in the shower and splash-splash-splash!
Then you can throw open your window and, “Ha, ha! ha ha!”
And if people say, “Hey, what’s going on up there?”
“Ha ha!” sing back, “Happiness was hiding in the last tear!
I wept it! Ha ha!”

Food for Thought

When you have something serious to think about then you have food for thought.

Here’s some FOOD FOR YOUR THOUGHT!

Tomatoes are red, beans are green
A brinjal has a crown, just like a queen.
Potatoes are brown, onions are pink
Carrots have juice, which I can drink.
Vegetables make me healthy and wise
So eat some daily with roti and rice.
My Elder Brother

This short play is about two brothers who are affectionate and respectful to each other. The story also shows that learning from our day to day experiences is as important as what we learn from books in the school. This play is based on the famous story in Hindi- Bade Bhai Saheb written by Munshi Premchand.
Scene 1  A hostel room. Two brothers, aged 9 and 14 years sitting at a study table. The elder brother, Bhaiya, is reading a book and the younger one, Munna, is drawing pictures of birds and animals.

Bhaiya What are you doing, Munna?
Munna I am drawing.
Bhaiya When will you study? Where were you in the morning?
Munna (turning pale) I was playing. Bhaiya, how can you sit with a book for hours together?
Bhaiya That's because I want my foundation in education to be very strong. If the base is strong then the building will stand firmly. Sometimes it takes me two years to do one year's work.
Munna Bhaiya, you are five years older than I am and three classes ahead of me. I wonder why you keep writing the same word twenty times, one sentence more than twenty times and copy poems several times in beautiful letters?
Bhaiya You know, studying English is no child's play, one has to work very hard in order to learn the subject. To speak or write English properly, tremendous effort is required. But the moment you get a chance, you run to the field, play marbles and fly paper kites, or sit idling away with friends for fun! Can’t you sit down and study?
MUNNA: Oh Bhaiya, there is a big mela in the village today. Should we go?

Bhaiya: Have you ever seen me going to a fair or going to watch a cricket or hockey match? I don't go near them. I prefer to study a book. I don't mind repeating a class for more than two years. But you might stay in the same class all your life. Do you expect to pass if you waste your time playing all the time? You are simply wasting father's hard earned money.

(Munna starts crying on being scolded and sobbing sounds wah, wah, bah, bah, hu, hu, are heard)

MUNNA: Bhaiya, I feel like running away and going back home.

Bhaiya: Now, now! Stop crying. Put on a nice smile. Look I will make a timetable for you to follow. Get up at dawn.

MUNNA  But when is the time to play?
Bhaiya  Play? What is the need, Munna?
Munna  Oh! I love the green fields, the gentle breeze, I want to jump up like a football, I like the touch and go and hu tu tu sounds of the kabaddi, and the hurry and flurry of volleyball pulls me like a magnet. As soon as I am on the field, I forget everything.

SCENE 2  The final exams are over and the results are out.

Bhaiya  Alas! I have failed once again.
Munna  Oh! But Bhaiya, I have passed and topped my class. Now there is only two years difference between us.
Bhaiya  But my dear brother, don't be so proud. You have passed only one class and you think that I'm stupid and you are smart. Once in a while, in a gulidanda game, you might get lucky and hit a goal but that does not mean you have mastered the game. You have to work hard to be successful in life. When you have to study a subject like Algebra or Geometry in higher classes then you will understand the importance of hard work.

In Geometry, if one writes ‘acb’ instead of ‘abc’ the answer is marked wrong. The examiners will not spare you. They want you to learn word by word from the textbooks.

MUNNA

Oh Bhaisaheb! This is scary. I don’t think I want to go to the 9th class now, but I will still complete my day’s homework so that I get no punishment in class.

BHAIYA

Just today, we were asked to write a short essay on the topic of Punctuality in four pages! And imagine, can something be written on four pages and still be short? It’s all so mixed up!

MUNNA

(thinking aloud) Thank God, it was time for school or else, the scolding would have gone on and on.

SCENE 3

The results were out once again and it so happened that Munna passed and Bhaiya failed again. Bhaiya was really upset. Munna was also sad seeing his brother so unhappy. Bhaiya now becomes gentler with Munna. Munna became naughtier because of this and studied even less than before.

MUNNA

(talking aloud) Ah! I am lucky. I can pass easily. I need not study so hard. Now I can play games with my friends and fly kites. But I should still be careful that Bhaiya does not see me flying kites.
(One day a kite is flying slowly downwards, Munna starts running in order to grab it. Suddenly, he comes face to face with Bhaiya.)

Bhaiya (catching hold of Munna’s hand) Aren’t you ashamed to be playing kites all day long? Don’t you realise that now you are in the eighth class and are not studying in a lower class? If you think that I am just one class ahead of you and I can't say anything, you are wrong. I am five years older than you are, and will always be. Understanding doesn’t come only from reading books. Look at Ma and Baba. Ma has never gone to school and Baba has only passed fifth class.

Munna Really Bhaiya! Is that true?
Bhaiya Yes! There are a thousand things that they know more than you or me. And even if we have studied the wisdom of the whole world, Ma and Baba will always have the right to explain to us and correct us. Now, what would you do if I were to fall sick today?

Munna I don’t know, Bhaiya! I would tell Baba and he would rush to the hostel.

Bhaiya Aha! I had expected this answer. Now Baba would not get upset. He would first try to find out what was wrong and then he would call a doctor. Baba would know exactly what to do. They have more experience than us.

Munna (with tears in his eyes) Bhaiya I am sorry, what you say is true.

(Bhaiya hugs Munna lovingly)

Bhaiya I also like to play and fly kites. But if I also play then how can I watch out for you? You are my responsibility.

Munna I love you, Bhaiya!

My dear Ma,

This is my first letter after the summer vacations. We started our classes the day after we reached the hostel. I have settled in well.

We have a new teacher for clay modelling and pottery. She tells us how to make fruits and vegetables with clay. We then paint them. They look so real.

We have an inter-house poetry recitation coming up in August. I am really excited about it. It is a long poem but we learn it together with our teacher.

It is nice to be back in school with my friends and teachers. I remember you and Baba a lot. Give my love to grandmother and grand father.

Do write back soon.

Your loving son
Pratap

Comprehension

Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow.

Oliver was a nine-year-old boy. He lived with other homeless boys in an orphanage. He was pale and thin as were the other boys living there. This was because they had to work hard but were never given enough to eat. The owner of the orphanage, Mr Bumble, was a cruel man and he ill-treated the boys.

The boys were always hungry. It was true that they were given three meals a day but each meal consisted only of a bowl of watery soup. They were almost starving. So it was decided by them to ask the master for more soup. But who would bell the cat? Finally the task fell to Oliver.

When all the boys had assembled in the cold stone hall for their evening meal, the soup was served. It soon disappeared. The boys whispered to one another and one boy pushed Oliver a little. Oliver, making a brave effort, stood up, walked up to the master with his bowl and spoon in his hand, and said tremulously, “Please sir, I want some more.”

1. Why did Oliver live in the orphanage?
2. Who was Mr Bumble?
3. What meals were the boys given?

   (i) Because the soup they were given was never enough.

UNIT 4

Poem: Crying
Story: My Elder Brother

THEMES
Respecting elders and their experience
Looking at the lighter side of life

READING TIME
Teachers should encourage children to read classics in English as well as in any other languages they know, to enhance their reading habit.

It is also important for children to understand that all poems need not rhyme. There are also poems that are in blank verse though there is a basic rhythm to such poems.

This Unit presents a story of Premchand translated into English, setting forth translation as a means of understanding other cultures.

CONVERSATION TIME
The teacher should view children's talk as a valuable resource. Conversing in small groups can nurture the abilities to compare and contrast, to wonder and remember, to guess and challenge, to judge and evaluate.

Children can be asked to enact different emotions like joy, anger, excitement, sadness etc.

Children can discuss their interactions with parents and other elders and share the reasons why sometimes they dislike being told what to do /not do.

WRITING TIME
The writing exercises, creative writing and the letter writing should be done after a general discussion in class so that every child is clear about what has to be written. E.g. the meanings of the feeling words should be clear to the children. The use of the dictionary should be advised and encouraged throughout.

PROJECT WORK
Through the medium of creative dramatics children can become whatever they wish to be. Teachers can plan for experiences in dramatic expression and interpretation.
